

Bixter.training partnering description

Welcome to the Bixter.training paid Scandinavian and German Program. You have the unique opportunity to enter Scandinavian and German agricultural market and give your students the possibility to grow and learn in the most developed countries in the world. Bixter.work is helping people to experience the Scandinavian and German agricultural know-how for 13 years now. Bixter.training doesn't ensure just great paid traineeships, we also guarantee the best farmers, new culture experience and great living conditions for trainees.

In these pages you will learn about the Bixter.training paid Scandinavian and German Program, how to become our partner, what is included in working with Bixter.work and how to grant the best traineeship for your applicants.

This includes following documents:

- Bixter.training paid Scandinavian and German Program description
- Qualification requirements for our program and process instructions
- Marketing materials of Bixter.work offers
- A Bixter.work contact list
- An agreement between Bixter.work and you as a partner
- Frequently asked questions

Nataliya Jørgensen, CEO and founder

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'N. Jørgensen', positioned below the name caption.

Bixter.
training

-your ticket to Scandinavian and German agriculture world
+45 27 11 78 64